Silent Film Series
from the collections of the
Rhode Island Historical Society

110 Benevolent St, Providence, RI 02906

Tickets available at the door.
Admission: $8 for RIHS members
$10 for non-members

Before Hollywood there was Providence. Rhode Island film companies ruled movie screens during the 1910s. Come see classic silent films - most being shown for the first time in over 90 years. Live piano accompaniment by Peter Freisinger.

Saturday, January 22, 2011, 7pm-8:30pm
Construction and Opening of Mount Hope Bridge, 1929.
Includes unexpected footage of members of the Algonquin tribe.

Partners of the Tide, 1915.
An action adventure with explosions, danger at sea, and romance!

Saturday, February 19, 2011, 7pm-8:30pm
My Lady of the Lilacs, c.1916.
A dramatic love affair between an impoverished painter & his model.
Church With an Overshot Wheel, 1920.
A tender little fable about a miller whose only child is stolen.
Inspiration, c.1916.
An exciting crime drama involving a pretty woman and her jewels.

Saturday, March 12, 2011, 7pm-8:30pm
Diamonds, c.1915.
Clever detectives use new science - fingerprinting - to solve a crime.

The Minister, 1915.
Gambling, fast cars, and immoral men filmed in part at the old Narragansett Park Speedway in Cranston.

For more information, visit www.RIHS.org/events
Email LibPrograms@RIHS.org or Call (401) 273-8107, x12